MINI ENGLISH LESSON

GO +ING

describing leisure activities using the gerund

- We use go +ing for activities we do for fun in our free time.
- Go +ing indicates the whole activity and experience, not just the action expressed by the verb.
- This structure is used with verbs that are not followed by an object.
- The verb "go" changes based on the verb tense we use, for example:

He goes running every day after work.
We are going kayaking this weekend.
I went shopping yesterday.

go running
go shopping
go hiking
go surfing
go bowling
go sailing
go camping
go sightseeing
go jogging
go skiing
go kayaking
go dancing
go trekking
go skating
go fishing
go scuba diving
go mountain climbing
go horseback riding
