Name :_____

Grade:

Listening Practice

Asking & Giving Opinion

Dialogue 1:

John : Hey, Sarah. _____ the new restaurant downtown?

Sarah : Oh, I went there last weekend! _____, the food was great, but the service was a bit slow.

John : Really? I was thinking of trying it. _____ it's worth the wait?

Sarah : Well, if you're not in a rush, _____ it's a good choice. The atmosphere is really nice too.

John : _____. Thanks for your opinion!

Sarah : _____ ! Let me know what you think after you go.

Dialogue 2:

John : Hey, Sarah! _____ the movie we just watched?

Sarah : Hmm, honestly, _____ it was a bit slow in the beginning. But the plot twist at the end was amazing. What about you? _____?

John : _____ about the plot twist. It really caught me by surprise! But, _____, the acting could have been better, especially the lead actor.

Sarah : Yeah, _____. I thought the supporting cast did a great job, though. _____?

John: _____! They really brought the story to life. Overall, I'd say it was a decent movie, but not the best I've seen.

Sarah: _____. I'd recommend it for the storyline, but not for the performances.

John: _____! So, are you up for another movie next weekend?

Sarah: _____, let's pick something with better reviews this time!

Good Job!

LIVEWORKSHEETS