Colegio Patriarca San José
English Department
Instructor: Lic. Joselyn Pérez Quirós

Reading and Writing Quiz, 11th Grade
III Term, 2024

Date: Oct. 7th –11th

Quiz 10%

Student name: _____ Group: 11-_____

A. Directions: Complete the conversations with the correct adverb or modal in parentheses.

1. A: Look at Carla sitting over there tapping her foot.
   B: Oh, (maybe / may / might) it means she's waiting for a phone call.

2. A: What does Pedro's gesture mean?
   B: It (probably / might / could) means he wants you to be quiet.

3. A: What does it mean when somebody does this?
   B: That's easy! That gesture (perhaps / definitely / possibly) means everything's OK.

4. A: Look! The girl is rolling her eyes at her brother.
   B: (Must / Perhaps / Could) it means she doesn't like what he's saying.

B. Directions: Rewrite each sentence in different ways using the words in parentheses correctly.

1. Perhaps it means she doesn't agree with you.

   a) _____ (might)

   b) _____ (maybe)

   c) _____ (may)

2. That gesture could mean "Come here".

   a) _____ (probably)

3. That definitely means he doesn't understand you.

   a) _____ (must)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

C. Directions: Imagine you are in these situations. What do you think they mean? Write an assumption for each situation using modals or adverbs correctly. Use the phrases in the box.

/ it was sent to the wrong address / a thief entered the house / / you exceeded the speed limit / the person is an ancestor of yours

1.You are driving a car. A police officer stops you.
(could)
_____
_____.

2. It's 3:00 A.M. You hear a loud noise outside your door.
(perhaps)
_____
_____.

3. You receive a greeting card. There is no message and no return address.
(probably)
_____
_____.

4. You find an old painting in your garage. The person in the painting looks like you.
(must)
_____
_____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS