Linda : Did you know what's viral in our school?
Arya : I didn't. What's that?
Linda : Ah... you're not well informed. I think it's important for you to stay informed about what's happening around and sometimes to engage with different perspectives.
Arya : What do you mean? I truly don't know the news.
Linda : Well, do you know the proverb 'Don't judge a book by its cover'?
Arya : I do. But what's the problem?
Linda : Recently there's a video of a boy competing in an illegal motorcycle race. Do you know who the boy is? He is supposed to be Dewa.
Arya : Dewa, the candidate of our OSIS chairperson?
Linda : Indeed!
Arya : How did you get the news?
Linda : I read it on the social media and almost all students talk about it. What's your opinion?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

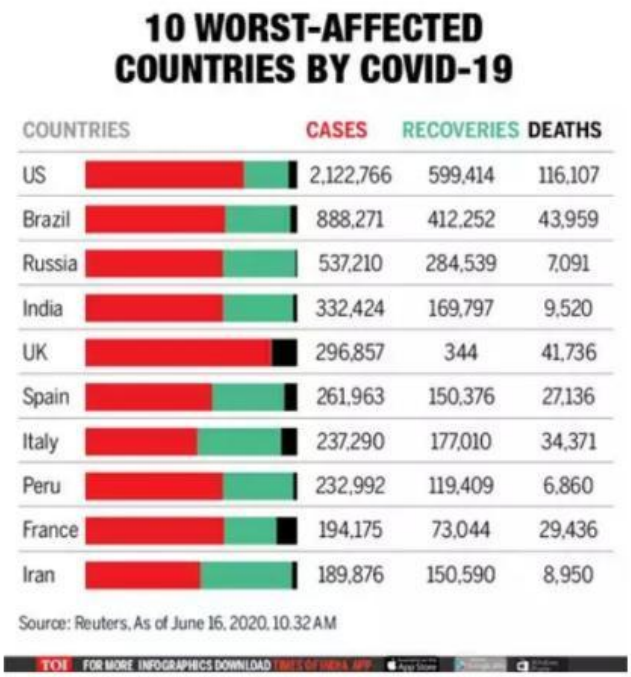

Arya : I am not sure if the boy is Dewa. So far I know, he is a good boy. of OSIS chairperson will make him think twice before doing something stupid like that.
Linda : So, you think that the news is fake, don't you?
Arya : I feel that, but I don't know the truth. It's better for us to check and recheck the news. We should not blindly accept everything we hear or read online. Viral news can often be blown out of proportion. It's hard to know what's real and what's not.
