Bulletproof Boy Scouts (BTS)

There are different genres of music in the world, such as classical music, pop music and folk music. However, the majority of teenagers love pop music the most. There is a Korean pop (K-pop) idol group who has put a lot of effort to become a world-famous boy band, that is Bulletproof Boy Scouts or usually known as BTS.

BTS was formed in 2013 with seven good-looking Korean boys. They were found by Big Hit Entertainment. They had been trained at the company for almost three years before performing on stage. They had a very hard time, but they supported each other because they share the same dream of becoming the most popular K-pop idol group in the world. Most of their songs deliver positive messages on teenage matters. Over the years, they have been travelling for their concert tours. Their music has now been recognised by the public and has received a number of prizes for their great success.

Other than music, BTS also cares about society. In 2021, BTS and their company gave over $1 million to UNICEF for children's welfare. Now, they have a lot of fans or 'A.R.M.Y.' from many countries because they are not just an idol group who sing and dance on stage, they also try their best to make the world a better place.
