Task 2.1 I watch this video about healthy lifestyle, then I take notes in my notebook about the different ways to keep a healthy living. Veó este video sobre un estilo de vida saludable, luego tomo notas en mi cuaderno sobre las diferentes maneras de mantener una vida saludable.

Task 2.2 I think about the questions in the picture below.

Successful living is the ability to reach goals in life, whatever those goals may be. There is no single right way to be successful. What works for one person might not work for someone else. There may not be a perfect combination of ingredients that can guarantee success, but there are some basic things you can do to improve your chances of being successful in life, love, work, or whatever happens to be important to you.

Task 2.3 I write down ideas that called my attention from the paragraph above regarding to success and use the notes I took from the video. Escribo ideas que llamaron mi atención desde el párrafo anterior con respecto al éxito y uso las notas que tomé del video.

Success for a Healthy Living

Success is not about money, big houses and fast cars. It includes all parts of a person's life. Success should not be defined by what a person has materially, but rather by the life they have, the joy they bring to others and the happiness they feel inside. Sometimes people need advice in order to establish healthy habits in their life.

Task 2.4 To give advice and opinions of the best thing to do in a particular situation, we will use MODALS. I watch the video provided by the teacher, with a review of modals. Then I reinforce what I saw in the video with the information in the chart below the link. Para dar consejos y opiniones de lo mejor que se puede hacer en una situación particular, utilizaremos MODALS. Veo el video proporcionado por el maestro, con una revisión de modales. Luego reforzo lo que vi en el video con la información en el gráfico debajo del enlace.

Modals for Advice

Let's learn how to give advice!

English speakers use the modal verbs "should," "ought to" and "had better" to express that they think something is a good (or a bad) idea. "Should" is the most common way to give advice.

Look at these examples:

Affirmative	Negative	Question
A: I failed my test. B: Really? You should study harder.	Young children shouldn't watch violent TV shows.	I have a problem. Should I call my parents or my friend?
A: It's really cold outside. B: You ought to wear a warm jacket.	("ought to" is not usually used in the negative form)	("ought to" is not common in question form)
A: You had better slow down. You are driving too fast!	You had better not forget to pay your tuition. If you do, the university will kick you out!	("had better" is not usually used in question form)

3. Practice what I learnt / Pongo en práctica lo aprendido

INDICACIONES GENERALES PARA ACTIVIDADES 3.1 a 3.5

Leeré cuidadosamente las actividades propuestas en este apartado de la self study guide y las realizaré cuidadosamente.

Task 3.1 I practice about using MODALS. If I have any doubt, I will watch the video again and go over the information provided in task 2.4.1 hago la práctica sobre el uso de MODALS. Si tengo alguna duda, volveré a ver el vídeo y repasaré la información proporcionada en la tarea 2.4.1

Grammar Practice Worksheet.

Rewrite the sentences using Should.

Example: My brother never gets up on time,

My brother should get up on time

1. My coworker never eats healthy food.

2. My friend doesn't get much sleep at night.

3. My classmates don't study exercise that much.

4. He never drinks water.

5. My friend doesn't get much sleep at night.

Pretend you're a school counselor giving advice to learners about how to implement healthy habits at school. Write suggestions using should, ought to and had better. Then have a short conversation with a partner. One student will be the counselor and the other will be his/her student.

Example:

study/two hours/ at night

You should study two hours at night/

SHOULD

get/eight hours of sleep/ every night.

drink/eight glasses of water/ every day.

OUGHT TO

read/a book/ at night

do/your homework/right after school

HAD BETTER

concentrate/during your class

study/before your final exams
