

Open the brackets with the correct form of the verb (gerund or infinitive)

- Finally, we agreed                    (go) to the concert.
- My boss apologized for                    (not give) the salary on time.
- This week we have discussed                    (have) problems at the exams.
- My daughter is pretending                    (be) ill, but she isn't!
- Don't smoke here. I can't stand                    (smoke).
- Let's continue                    (read), we have 10 pages left.
- When my friend offers                    (go for a walk), I don't mind.
- Do you need                    (repair) the car?
- They were shocked. They couldn't                    (say) a word.
- We couldn't decide what                    (do). Then Mary suggested                    (watch) a movie.
- I didn't want                    (go shopping). But my wife made me                    (go) with her.
- I usually avoid                    (visit) my grandparents, but not this time.
- She couldn't give up                    (sing). She loved it.
- He failed                    (learn) how                    (speak) Japanese.
- We aren't as good at                    (dance) as he is.
- She never refused                    (agree) with him.
- I have heard that your niece succeeded in                    (paint)!
- I've always resisted                    (have) bad habits.
- Did you enjoy                    (get married)?
- He promised                    (come) on Sunday, but he didn't.
- I'm looking forward to                    (hear) from you!
- Have you ever dared                    (sing) a song in front of other people?
- This chance doesn't worth                    (take).
- My sister is keen on                    (cook), but I'm not.
- You really must practice                    (speak)!