

UNIT 3, FUTURE AND DEFINING AND NONDEFINING RELATIVE CLAUSES.

Planning personalities

You can tell a lot about people by the way they organize their social life. Here are four types of planners we probably all know.

	The last-minute planner is very easygoing, calls you ten minutes before an event, and is surprised when you can't come!		The disorganized planner never uses a calendar and often plans to do two things at the same time, sometimes forgetting both!
	The plan-ahead planner is extremely organized and likes to make detailed plans a long time before the event, expecting everyone else to do the same.		The unreliable planner makes plans, but cancels just before you're going to meet and doesn't think this is a problem.

4 A  3.3 Listen to four voicemail messages. Which type of planner is each person?

Ben _____ Zoe _____ Eva _____ Jack _____

B  3.3 Who said the sentences: Ben (B), Zoe (Z), Eva (E), or Jack (J)? Listen again and check.
