

My Secret Unicorn

My dad runs a pet rescue. He helps lots of different animals to find a home.

Dad saw a small box on the doorstep of the pet rescue last night. It looked like a rainbow! Dad picked it up and took it inside.

Dad found a tiny, golden egg inside the box. The egg had a crack along the bottom. Dad knew that it would hatch soon. He put it into a warm box.

The egg hatched. Dad brought the creature straight home and told me not to tell anyone about it. That is when I met my secret unicorn for the first time.
