

DURING vs FOR vs WHILE

test-english.com

DURING When?	FOR How long?	WHILE At the same time
+ NOUN ➤ Some people got lost during the journey. ➤ I will finish the novel during the summer break. ➤ Most burglaries happen during the night.	+ TIME PERIOD ➤ We have known each other for a long time. ➤ I waited for more than an hour, but I got tired and went home. ➤ He worked in this company for over 30 years.	+ SUBJECT + VERB ➤ I had tea while you were in the shower. ➤ I always listen to the radio while I'm cleaning. ➤ You shouldn't use your phone while you are driving.

test-english.com

Choose the correct form:

Regular check-ups are essential for/during individuals at higher risk of melanoma.

The surgeon removed a sample of the mole during/while checking for other suspicious spots.

Treatments for/while melanoma patients can vary depending on the stage of the cancer.

The patient felt relieved for/during the consultation when the doctor explained the treatment plan.

Early detection is crucial for/while improving melanoma survival rates.

UV rays damage the skin during/while melanocytes begin to proliferate uncontrollably.

Sunscreen should be worn during/for protection against UV radiation.

Patients often receive information about prevention during/while undergoing melanoma screenings.

Immunotherapy is a common treatment for/while advanced melanoma.

New therapies have shown promising results during/for clinical trials for melanoma.

Sunscreen should be reapplied every two hours while/during prolonged sun exposure.

The doctor discussed treatment options during/while reviewing the patient's test results.

Melanoma can spread to other organs during/for the later stages of the disease.

While/During analyzing the skin under the microscope, the pathologist identified malignant melanoma cells.

UV radiation exposure is particularly harmful for/during midday hours when the sun is strongest.