Zoom in, read the letter and answer the question correctly.

Dear Valued Customers,

We are writing to express our deepest apologies for the recent battery issues experienced with our latest smartphone model. We understand the inconvenience and frustration this has caused, and we take full responsibility for the defect.

The safety and satisfaction of our customers are our top priorities. We have immediately launched a thorough investigation into the cause of the battery problem and are working diligently to implement a solution.

We are offering a free replacement or full refund for all affected devices. Additionally, we are committed to improving our quality control processes to prevent similar issues in the future.

We sincerely appreciate your understanding and patience during this time. We value your trust and loyalty, and we are dedicated to making this situation right.

Sincerely, Your CEO
