

18 CONDITIONAL CLAUSE (TYPE 2)

DRUGIEGO TRYBU WARUNKOWEGO używamy, aby opisać:

- mało prawdopodobne lub wręcz niemożliwe sytuacje w teraźniejszości lub przyszłości, np. If I were taller, I would play basketball better.
 - swoją opinię lub radę odnośnie do konkretnej sytuacji, np. If I were you, I wouldn't buy such an old car.
- Zdania w drugim trybie warunkowym tworzymy używając następujących form czasownika:
- w zdaniu podrzędnym (ze spójnikiem if) używamy czasu Past Simple, np.: If they had children... lub If he didn't speak so fast...

Uwaga: korzystając z czasownika to be, możemy we wszystkich osobach zastosować formę were; w przypadku 1. i 3. osoby liczby pojedynczej (I, he, she, it) – obie formy (was i were) są poprawne, np. If I were rich ... lub If I was rich ...; If the weather were better ... lub If the weather was better ....

- w zdaniu nadrzędnym używamy czasownika would z bezokolicznikiem, np. It would be better if ..., They wouldn't have so much trouble if ...

1 Zaznacz poprawne formy czasowników.
