

What can you do in New York?

The objective of the activity:

At the end of this activity the students will be able to use the verbs can and cannot in different activities.

Instructions:

This activity has three parts.

Part 1.

In this activity, the students will listen to an audio recorded on the Vocaro platform. This audio will be used in this live workshop to help students learn about things they can and cannot do in New York. Take notes in your notebook.

Listening:

Part 2:

Complete the following paragraph according to the audio you are listening. Use the words that are in the box. Write the correct word in the black space.

Can go up
Cannot do	cannot visit
Rent	Walk

New York is a city in the United States that is visited by many tourists every day.

On the Internet you can find information about how beautiful it is, but they do not tell us what you _____ in the city. In New York, you can _____ all over the city.

You _____ the Empire State Building. There are also things you cannot do, for example _____ a car. You _____ some places without a prior reservation, for example, the Observatory at One World Trade Center or certain Broadway shows.

Part 3:

After the students have listened to the audio, you must work on this part. Answer the sentences that appear there with false or true answers. Write the correct answer in the black space.

- 1- You can swim on the city's beaches _____
- 2- You can visit the Statue of Liberty _____
- 3- You can only visit the city _____
- 4- You cannot go for a walk in Central Park _____
- 5- You can walk all over the city _____