

In each of the sentences below, four parts are underlined and lettered A, B, C and D. One of these parts contains an error. Decide whether it is A, B, C or D.

1. Spirits were high and undampened as the lithe, slim bodies of marathoners waiting patiently at the starting point.
A B C D
2. The fit-looking men and women stretched their legs and rushed into the cooling darkness before daybreak.
A B C D
3. For their conveniencies, those who wish to become blood donors can enlist at any government hospital or clinic in their hometown.
A B C D
4. Research shows that people who exercise regularly when maintaining their diet, may likely lose weight as desired.
A B C D
5. Almost every day we come across messages for appeal in the local dailies for funds to help the sick or the needy.
A B C D
6. Most of the people who move from rural areas to town are youths who take up educational or employment opportunities there.
A B C D
7. Students interested in taking up medicine may be required to undergo an attitude test before they are offered university places.
A B C D
8. More awareness campaigns will be carried out to inculcate a cleanliness culture, specially among schoolchildren.
A B C D
9. It is believed that the consumption of mint can improve blood circulation and clean any impurities from the body.
A B C D
10. Efforts to improve the standard of living through the control of nature has resulted in the deterioration of the environment.
A B C D

In each of the sentences below, four parts are underlined and lettered A, B, C and D. One of these parts contains an error. Decide whether it is A, B, C or D.

1. A few years after the death of her husband, the lady fell ill and became an emotionless wreck.
A B C D
2. Malaysians are experiencing health problems like obesity and its associated illnesses such as diabetes, heart diseases with strokes.
A B C D
3. Health experts agree that to curb obesity, urgent actions are needed across all aged groups, especially for the younger generation.
A B C D
4. To be healthy and free of sickness, we ought to have a balanced diet and regular exercise.
A B C D
5. The authorities will redouble efforts to enhance the efficiency of the cleansing services in all government departments.
A B C D
6. There are many who often appeal for funds, including someone with a hole-in-the-heart, kidney failing, liver disease, skin disease or cancer.
A B C D
7. Mint is known as podina to the Indians, who take their leaves for indigestion and rheumatic pains.
A B C D
8. Nowadays you can enjoy spicy instant asam laksa and prawn mee in the comfort of your home, at about half the price that you paid at food stalls.
A B C D
9. If we are serious about the conservation of wildlife, we can certainly help curbing indiscriminate exploitation of our natural resources.
A B C D
10. Certain places have become uninhabitable yet people from all over the world are being exposed to new risks from diseases.
A B C D