

Ex.1. Choose the appropriate word(s) to complete each sentence

1. Fair Dinkum is an upfront, and person.
2. Australians might be to give up their free time for a Sunday corporate
3. The work-to-live attitude encourages Australians to have a work-life and pursue their personal goals.
4. Mateship is shown by the cooperation and to support others in times of crisis.
5. is the most popular religion in Australia
6. Asian values such as hardworking,, and are appreciated by Australians.
7. Australians can make jokes about their
8. While Australians mostly have nothing against the British, they might have some issues with the
9. Australians generally dislike those who exercise authority when it's believed to be or 10. Visitors' displays of wealth, education, or status might cause feelings among Australians.

immoral

politeness

willing negligence

readiness

English

unjustified

suitable

honest

disciplinary unwilling

meeting

Islam

balance

misused

disingenuous

informality

unpleasant

Christian

genuine

crisis

sacred cows

American

Ex.2. Write True or False

1. True 'mateship' can be formed at any time when two people meet. ...
2. Mateship is extended to women nowadays. ...
3. The majority of Australians have no religion. ...
4. Self-deprecating jokes are not valued by Australians. ...
5. Poms is a slang used to describe the British. ...
6. Australians love boasting and supporting the authority. ...
7. Refugees are always warmly welcomed into the country. ...
8. Quentin Bryce is the first female Head of Education Department. ...
9. There is a lack of gender balance in leadership positions. ...
10. You can talk to a millionaire in a pub without knowing their status. ...