Fill in the blanks using the correct conditional form: (have a look at your chart on Conditional sentences). All these sentences are based on the text we read in class (pg 174 from your book)

The student thought that Miss Amelia had made her spell after a pencil point on purpose. She believed that if she hadn't been the youngest student in the class, the teacher _____ (not shame) her.

The teacher said that there was an important Thought in that sentence. She stated that if they behaved like birds in the nest and they agreed, the classroom atmosphere _____ (be) nicer for everyone.

The student contradicted the teacher, who struck her for it. If the student _____ (not contradict) her, the teacher wouldn't have struck her.

The student insisted on telling the truth. If birds are in the nest together, they _____ (fight). That's the way nature works, after all.

If teachers _____ (behave) now as they did back in those times, they _____ (get) into trouble.

If I had been struck by my teacher when I was in primary school, I _____ (hate) teachers now, that's for sure!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS