

ADJECTIVES OF PERSONALITY

Fill in the blanks

Complete the sentences using the correct personality adjective from the box below:

friendly, shy, generous, lazy, talkative, kind, hardworking, funny, polite, brave, quiet, energetic, honest, creative, unsociable, positive, negative, boring, unkind, stupid

1. My sister is very _____. She always talks to everyone at parties.
2. John is very _____. He doesn't like to share his toys.
3. Mia is very _____. She helps everyone with their homework.
4. He is too _____ to finish his homework on time.
5. Sarah is so _____ that she finds it hard to meet new people.
6. Max is very _____. He works hard on all his school projects.
7. Anna is always _____; she makes everyone laugh in class.
8. Mark is really _____; he never tells lies.
9. My friend is very _____, and she always says "please" and "thank you."
10. The firefighter was very _____ when he saved the cat from the tree.
11. Clara is so _____; she is full of new ideas for our project.
12. Peter is very _____, and he doesn't like to hang out with other people.
13. Emma is always _____; she smiles and thinks everything will be fine.
14. Luke is _____. He never wants to try new things and complains a lot.
15. I don't like that TV show; it's really _____.
16. That was an _____ thing to say. You shouldn't call people names.
17. Don't be _____! You need to think before you act.

ADJECTIVES OF PERSONALITY

Part 3: Choose the Correct Word

Circle the adjective that best completes the sentence.

1. Tom never does his homework. He's very (hardworking / lazy).
2. Maria always smiles and talks to everyone. She's so (rude / friendly).
3. Emma is (shy / talkative); she never talks in class.
4. Bob always gives money to charity. He is very (selfish / generous).
5. Max has a lot of energy! He's very (quiet / energetic).
6. Sophie always says "thank you" and "please." She's really (rude / polite).
7. My brother always tells the truth. He's very (dishonest / honest).
8. Sarah is never afraid to try new things; she's really (brave / shy).
9. That boy is always drawing and making new things. He's very (creative / boring).
10. Lucy never wants to go out or talk to anyone. She's quite (friendly / unsociable).
11. Leo never has anything good to say. He's so (positive / negative).
12. The movie was so long and slow. It was really (exciting / boring).

ADJECTIVES OF PERSONALITY

Match the Opposites

Match each adjective on the left with its opposite on the right.

Friendly

Talkative

Generous

Kind

Shy

Rude

Boring

Unsociable

Unkind

Tight-fisted

Hardworking

Scared

Polite

Lazy

Sociable

Confident

Brave

Unfriendly

Quiet

Funny