Sentence Patterns

For each sentence, identify the requested element (subject, verb, predicate noun, predicate adjective, adverbial, direct object, indirect object, or objective complement) and write it in the blank.

1. She brought her mother a gift. Identify the IO: _____
2. The wolf howled at the moon. Identify the V: _____
3. The soup tasted delicious. Identify the PA: _____
4. The children are outside. Identify the Advl: _____
5. He sent his friend an invitation. Identify the DO: _____
6. They named the baby Lily. Identify the OC: _____
7. We went to the beach. Identify the Advl: _____
8. The teacher gave us homework. Identify the IO: _____
9. She is a writer. Identify the PN: _____
10. The tickets sold out yesterday. Identify the V: _____
11. The book is on the table. Identify the S: _____
12. They called him a genius. Identify the OC: _____
13. I gave her my notes. Identify the DO: _____
14. The cake smells delicious. Identify the PA: _____
15. He plays the guitar well. Identify the DO: _____
16. She arrived late. Identify the Advl: _____
17. They chose him president. Identify the OC: _____
18. The chef cooked a stuffed turkey. Identify the S: _____
19. Her hair is curly. Identify the PA: _____
20. They became best friends. Identify the PN: _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS