

Fly to Lisbon, hire a car and drive through some really beautiful countryside.

Visit the lovely town of Óbidos with its cobbled streets and medieval walls.

Drive down to the coast, walk along the beautiful beaches and watch the Atlantic waves as they crash against the cliffs.

Then, in the evening, sit down for a delicious meal and have a glass of wine.

1. Where does the trip start? _____
2. What type of transportation do you need to hire in Lisbon? _____
3. What is special about the town of Óbidos? _____
4. What can you see and hear on the coast? _____
5. What can you enjoy in the evening after a day of exploring? _____

Hire a luxurious houseboat and explore the backwaters of Kerala - it's such a relaxing way to spend your time.

There are more than forty-four rivers in this southern Indian state for you to navigate.

Visit villages, buy fresh fruit from the riverside markets and just relax as you drift along on the water.

1. What can you hire to explore the backwaters of Kerala? _____
2. How many rivers are there in Kerala to explore? _____
3. What can you buy from riverside markets? _____
4. What is the main activity you do while on the houseboat? _____
5. What does drifting mean here? _____

Long Answer:

Out of the two places, which do you prefer to go to and why?
