

Grammar training

Mixed Future Tenses

Tick the correct sentences.

1. By 7 p.m., they will be relaxing at home after a long day.
2. Luca will return the book by next week; you have his word.
3. I am going to finish this project tonight no matter how long it takes.
4. Will Jakob and Maria be running in the marathon this Saturday?
5. Leo is going to join the photography club soon, I am sure.
6. Be careful on the stairs, or you're going to hurt yourself.
7. They aren't going to renovate their house because they're moving to a new city.
8. Will you help me move some boxes later?
9. Will Emily and Marcus be watching the game tomorrow? I'd love to join them.
10. Do you think Hana will like the surprise?
11. My friends are going to visit me this weekend, and I can't wait to see them.
12. Emma won't be attending the meeting at 3 p.m. tomorrow.
13. Will Alex turn 18 this coming December?
14. Around 7 p.m. tonight, we will be having dinner at a new restaurant downtown.
15. We're out of coffee—don't worry, I will go buy some now.
16. Alex is going to save money all year to afford a vacation next summer.
17. She won't forget your birthday this time; she promised to remember.
18. Will you be using the office tomorrow? I'd like to work there if it's free.
19. The waves are getting rough; it's going to be a stormy night.
20. I hope, they will invite us to their wedding.
21. My friends and I will be planning our summer vacation together next weekend.
22. He's not going to win the race at this speed.