Hello, everyone. My name's Ngan and I'm from Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam. We have many festivals and holidays in my country, but my favorite holiday is Lunar New Year. It's usually in January or February and schools are closed for a week. That's why I like it. We clean our houses and put up red paper to decorate and celebrate the coming new year. Red is a lucky color in Vietnam. On the first day of the new year, I always wear new clothes. This year, I'm wearing my new "áo dài", and we kids will get lucky money from our parents and grandparents. We also watch the lion dance and eat lots of cookies, candy and some "bánh chưng". Lunar New Year is a lot of fun.
