

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Here is a set of multiple-choice questions based on the *Foundations of Media Literacy*

Multiple Choice Questions

1. **What is media literacy primarily concerned with?***
  - A) Creating media content
  - B) Critically analyzing and evaluating media messages
  - C) Avoiding all media consumption
  - D) Memorizing media facts

2. **Which of the following best describes media bias?***
  - A) Reporting only positive news stories
  - B) Presenting facts without any interpretation
  - C) A tendency to present information in a way that favors a particular viewpoint
  - D) Creating advertisements to promote products

3. **Which tool is commonly used in fact-checking and source evaluation?***
  - A) Social media platforms
  - B) Government websites
  - C) Fact-checking websites
  - D) Personal blogs

4. **Why is it important to recognize media bias?***
  - A) To always agree with media messages
  - B) To better understand how information can influence opinions
  - C) To ignore news that we disagree with
  - D) To promote our personal beliefs

5. **Which of the following is an example of ethical storytelling in media?***
  - A) Exaggerating facts to create more interest
  - B) Avoiding sensationalism and providing accurate information
  - C) Using only anonymous sources
  - D) Including personal opinions in all news stories

6. **What should you do if you encounter an article with potential misinformation?***
- A) Share it to warn others
  - B) Fact-check it using credible sources
  - C) Ignore it
  - D) Report it as hate speech
7. **What is the goal of the Media Creation and Ethical Storytelling phase in the project?***
- A) To create sensational media stories
  - B) To develop content that follows ethical guidelines and avoids bias
  - C) To critique other media creators
  - D) To create advertisements
8. **How does media literacy benefit individuals in society?***
- A) By promoting passive media consumption
  - B) By enabling individuals to create biased content
  - C) By encouraging critical thinking and informed decision-making
  - D) By reducing the variety of media sources
9. **What is the purpose of a Source Evaluation Workshop?***
- A) To learn about creating advertisements
  - B) To understand how to write persuasive essays
  - C) To practice fact-checking and identifying credible sources
  - D) To learn graphic design skills
10. **Which of the following statements is true about media literacy?***
- A) Media literacy discourages questioning media content.
  - B) Media literacy encourages passive acceptance of all media.
  - C) Media literacy teaches people to critique, analyze, and responsibly engage with media.
  - D) Media literacy requires avoiding all media consumption.