

Toni Morrison

Toni Morrison was a famous writer from the United States. She was born in 1931 and died in 2019. She wrote books about African American people and their lives. Her famous books include Beloved and The Bluest Eye. Toni Morrison won important awards for her books, like the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1993. She was a teacher too, and many people loved her work.

Reading Comprehension Exercises

1. General Questions

- Where was Toni Morrison from?

- What was one of Toni Morrison's famous books?

2. Word Definition Matching

Match the word with its meaning:

- 1. Writer →
- 2. Prize →
- 3. Famous →
- 4. Literature →

- a) well-known by many people
- b) someone who writes books
- c) an award for good work
- d) books and writings

3. Complete the Sentences

Fill in the blanks with words from the text:

- 4.
- Toni Morrison was a famous _____.
 - She won the Nobel _____ in 1993.
 - One of her famous books is called The _____ Eye.

5. Vocabulary

Write these words with a drawing or small picture:

- Book
- Teacher
- Prize
- Writer

