

Vocabulary Words Quiz

Instructions: Write the correct word for each statement.

evacuation

reservoir

conferring

consequences

widespread

victim

seismographs

alarming

If you fall _____ to something, you suffer or die because of it.

_____ are instruments that measure and record details about earthquakes, such as their strength and how long they last.

Something that is _____ makes you worry that something bad may happen.

An _____ is the act of moving from a dangerous area to a safer one.

If something is _____, it happens over a large area or among many people.

A _____ is where a supply of something is collected.

_____ are the outcomes or effects of events.

If you are _____ with someone, you are discussing an idea or trying to make a decision.

Instructions: Complete each sentence with the corresponding word.

consequences widespread alarming victim seismographs evacuation reservoir conferring

- 1.- Scientists use _____ to learn about earthquakes and help keep us safe.
- 2.- One of the _____ of an earthquake is damage to buildings.
- 3.- The news about the upcoming storm was _____ to many people.
- 4.- Most of the town's water comes from a nearby _____.
- 5.- The governor ordered an _____ of the entire state before the hurricane hit.
- 6.- After _____ with each other, my parents told me their decision.
- 7.- The hurricane caused _____ damage and destruction.
- 8.- They did not want to fall _____ to the dangers of flowing lava, so they sought shelter.