Task 1
Read narrative text below and answer the question!

Long time ago, in a small village near the beach in West Sumatera, lived a woman and her son, MalinKundang. MalinKundang's father had passed away when he was a baby, and he had to live hard with his mother.

MalinKundang was a healthy, dilligent, and strong child. He usually went to the sea to catch fish, and brought it to his mother, or sold it in the town.

One day, when MalinKundang was sailing as usual, he saw a merchant's ship which was being raided by a small band of pirates. With his brave and power, MalinKundang defeated the pirates. The merchant was so happy and asked MalinKundang to sail with him. MalinKundang agreed.

Many years later, MalinKundang became a wealthty merchant, with a huge ship, loads of trading goods, many ship crews, and a beautiful wife. In his journey, his ship landed on a beach. The villagersreconigzed him, and the news ran fast in the town: MalinKundang became a rich man and now he is here. His mother, in deepfulsadnees after years of loneliness, ran to the beach to meet her beloved son again.

When the mother came, MalinKundang, in front of his well dressed wife, his crews and his own gloriness, denied to meet that old, poor and dirty woman. For three times she begged MalinKundang and for three times yelled at him. At last MalinKundang said to her "Enough, old woman! I have never had a mother like you, a dirty and ugly peasant!" Then he ordered his crews to set sail.

Enraged, she cursed MalinKundang that he would turn into a stone if he didn't apologize. MalinKundang just laughed and set sail.

In the quiet sea, suddenly a thunderstorm came. His huge ship was wrecked and it was too late for MalinKundang to apologized. He was thrown by the wave out of his ship, fell on a small island, and suddenly turned into stone.
