

1). What words do similes use to compare things?

- A) like or as
- B) big or small
- C) happy or sad
- D) hot or cold

2. How can similes help us understand things better?

- A) They can make us laugh.
- B) They can help us learn new words.
- C) They can connect two different ideas.
- D) They can help us write poems.

3. What does the simile "The moon is like a silver coin" help us imagine?

- A) A big, strong dog.
- B) A bright, shiny moon.
- C) A house with many rooms.
- D) A sad person