

Listening

Listen carefully to the dialogue, then choose the correct option for each question.

Making the Right Choice

1. What is the first piece of furniture Mike suggests buying?

- a) A coffee table
- b) A sofa
- c) A dining table

2. Why does Sarah want to replace the coffee table?

- a) It doesn't look modern anymore
- b) It's too big for the room
- c) It doesn't match the couch

3. What reason does Mike give for wanting a new couch?

- a) It's too expensive to replace
- b) It doesn't match the coffee table
- c) They use it daily, and it's uncomfortable

4. Why does Sarah think a bigger dining table could be useful?

- a) It would make the room look larger
- b) It would give them more space to host guests
- c) It would be easier to clean

5. Why does Sarah agree to buy the couch first?

- a) It's the only piece of furniture they need
- b) It's the cheapest option
- c) It will make the living room look better right away

6. What do they plan to do over the weekend?

- a) Buy a new dining table
- b) Look at new couches in furniture shops
- c) Go shopping for a coffee table

