

The United States of America

A. The United States of America is a big country. It stretches from the Atlantic Ocean to the Pacific and its land borders are with Canada to the North and Mexico to the South.

Read the information about six American cities and write their names on the pictures.

B. Now mark them on the map, writing the number in the bubbles and drawing an arrow to the right state.

The capital city of the USA has no state. It is a district – D.C., District of Columbia. The city is bordered by the states of Virginia to the southwest and Maryland to the other sides and it was named after the first President of the US.

Also known as 'The Big Apple', this is one of the most famous cities in the world. It is located on a natural harbour on the Atlantic Coast. The Statue of Liberty is in this city.

Located in Southern California and often abbreviated as L.A. and nicknamed "The City of Angels", it's the second largest city in the US and the home base of Hollywood. It's known as the "Entertainment Capital of the World".

It's the capital and the most populous city of Colorado, followed by Colorado Springs. It's located between the Rocky Mountains to the west and the High Plains to the east.

This is the capital city of the 4th largest state in the USA. It borders 3 Canadian Provinces and North and South Dakota to the East. Its Cathedral is a unique historic monument.

This is the largest city of a Southern state, bordered to the North by Arkansas and to the West by Texas. The city is named after Philippe II, Duc d'Orléans, Regent of France, and is well known for its multicultural and multilingual heritage.

