

1 Complete the crossword with words for things that you read. Find the hidden word.

		¹ p	o	s	t	e	r
		² n			e
	³ a							e
	⁴ b								e
⁵ e				k
	⁶ p					r
⁷ a						t

The hidden word is

2 Match the sentence halves (1–6) to (A–F). Then complete the missing words for things that you read.

1 There was a job*advert*..... in the paper ...B...

2 My brother likes drawing and writing

3 Look! There's a on the wall

4 At school, we're designing

5 There's a really interesting

6 Mum left us a to say

A a for the Shakespeare play we're performing at the theatre next week.

B for an assistant at the local bookshop.

C that she would be home from work late.

D that says you're not allowed to eat in here.

E in my magazine about studying English abroad.

F and designs his own

3 Underline the correct words. Then write one more suitable word for each with the words in the box.

article e-book notice poster ~~sticker~~

1 You can write a short message on this:

A graphic novel B notesticker.....

2 You usually find this on a wall:

A poster B brochure

3 You read this in a newspaper or magazine:

A advert B e-book

4 It advertises useful information:

A notice B sticker

5 It tells us a story:

A graphic novel B brochure

4 Complete the sentences with say, speak, talk, or tell.

1 Can yousay..... 'Goodbye' in Mandarin?

2 Can you Mandarin?

3 Can you about yourself in Mandarin?

4 Can you me your name in Mandarin?

5 Tick (✓) or cross (X). Correct the verbs that are wrong.

1 Our teachersaid..... us to write a review of the play we saw at the theatre. Xtold.....

2 Fiona told me the answer to the question.

3 Nick talks three languages.

4 It tells on this notice that the bus is cancelled.

5 The article talks about school life in the USA.

6 His parents are Italian, but Luca can't say the language because he grew up in England.

6 Complete the conversation with the correct form of say, speak, talk, or tell and words for things that you read.

Rana: What are you reading?

Evie: A 1 brochure about language school.

Rana: Oh! 2 me what it says?

Evie: It 3 you can learn to 4 English on a two-week language course.

Rana: Wow! Are you going to 5 to your parents about it?

Evie: Maybe. I'd love to go. But it's expensive. I also read an 6 in the school 7 about a trip to England.

Rana: Yes, I saw the 8 about it on the wall. I'm going to 9 my parents about it. I hope I can go!

Evie: I'd prefer to do the language course so I can 10 more English.

Rana: You 11 it's expensive.

Evie: Not if you stay with a family instead of at the school. This 12 here 13 it's free to stay with a family.

Rana: Great! Then you should 14 to your parents about it after all!