

B. Read the story below, think about where your group's sentence should be and create a title for the story.

Last weekend, Sarah and her friends decided to go on a camping trip. They were all excited to spend time together, but some things did not go as planned. While 1 _____, Sarah realized she had forgotten her backpack with all her snacks. She felt upset because of this.

As 2 _____, the sky started to turn dark, and soon it began to rain heavily. Everyone rushed to keep their things dry. Soon after, the rain stopped and so they decided to tell ghost stories. When 3 _____, a loud noise suddenly came from the bushes, and everyone froze. They were feeling afraid that it might be a ghost!

The next morning they decided to go for a hike. As 4 _____, they found a beautiful waterfall. While 5 _____, she was thinking that despite the troubles, she was glad to be there with her friends. Later, as 6 _____, Alex, one of her friends, noticed he had lost his phone on the trail. He was feeling worried, so the group decided to help him find it. 7 _____ until they found it near the waterfall.

After arriving to the campsite, 8 _____ when they realized they were running out of food.

It was the end of the trip and so they decided to pack their things. Everything was fine, until it began raining again. 9 _____ until they were all in the car.

In the end, though, 10 _____, knowing they would never forget this camping trip.