

Activity 1: Unscramble the words.

- | | |
|-----------------------|----------------------|
| 1 trinerity _____ | 4 rvnoeraistie _____ |
| 2 tsgeisighn _____ | 5 tacrartosin _____ |
| 3 xagechna etre _____ | 6 rveosunis _____ |

Activity 2: Which group of words (1-6) describe each picture (A-F)?

1 value of money, currency	_____	A
2 plan of a journey, places to visit	_____	B
3 places to visit, tourists	_____	C
4 to visit famous and interesting places	_____	D
5 things that help you remember a holiday	_____	E
6 bookings, hotel room	_____	F

Activity 3: Underline the correct word for each sentence.

- 1 Could we also check / book the local currency?
- 2 We should also make / visit reservations for accommodations.
- 3 Shall I book tickets / itineraries for any attractions we want to visit?
- 4 We could set / give some money aside for souvenirs.
- 5 Should / Are we start planning our itinerary?

Activity 4: Are these statements true or false?

We can use "could", "should" and "shall" to make suggestions	True	False
"Shall" is used with first person pronouns (I and we.)	True	False
"Shall" is a bit more informal than "could" and "should".	True	False
The question form, with I and we, is the most common use of shall.	True	False
"Should" is followed by the gerund form of the verb.	True	False
We use "could" to make suggestions or give impolite recommendations.	True	False

Activity 5: Write one sentence or question for each picture using "could, should, or shall."

Activity 6: Write your own answers to the following questions.
Use "could, should, and shall."

1 What should we do next weekend?

2 Shall we watch a comedy movie later?

3 Who could we invite to our picnic?
