

Respiratory exam

Watch the video and choose the correct answers
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gRWSyqatWQQ>

1. What is the speaker's role?

- a) A final-year medical student
- b) A nurse
- c) A doctor

2. What is the purpose of the examination?

- a) To check James's blood pressure
- b) To examine James's chest
- c) To take a sputum sample

3. What does the doctor ask James to do with his hands?

- a) Bring them behind his back
- b) Turn them over and bring the fingernails together
- c) Hold them in the air

4. How does the doctor assess James's pulse?

- a) By checking the temperature of his arms
- b) By tapping on his chest
- c) By feeling the pulse in his wrist

5. What does the doctor ask James to do when inspecting his eyes?

- a) Look up
- b) Look straight ahead
- c) Look to the left

6. What is James asked to do during the chest expansion test?

- a) Take deep breaths and hold them
- b) Breathe through his nose
- c) Take a deep breath in and out

7. What does the doctor use to listen to James's chest?

- a) A thermometer
- b) A stethoscope
- c) A blood pressure cuff

8. What is James asked to say when the doctor places the stethoscope on his chest?

- a) "Hello"
- b) "Ninety-nine"
- c) "One, two, three"

9. What does the doctor check after asking James to sit forward?

- a) Any glands in the neck
- b) His lung capacity
- c) His heart rate

10. What was the final conclusion of the examination?

- a) James had a high heart rate
- b) James had normal respiratory findings
- c) James had a lung infection