Passage 1: Read the passage about Sarah's new job and answer the questions below with NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS from the text

Sarah's New Job

Sarah works at a small bakery in her town. Every morning, she arrives at the bakery at 6:00 a.m. She opens the shop, turns on the lights, and gets ready for the day. Her main job is to prepare fresh bread and pastries. Sarah loves working with dough and decorating cakes. She also helps customers choose what they want to buy.

The bakery is very popular because it sells delicious and fresh food. Many people come to the shop early to buy their breakfast or coffee. Sarah always smiles and greets every customer politely. She answers their questions and gives recommendations.

Sarah's favorite part of the job is working with her team. She enjoys talking to her coworkers while they bake and organize the shop. Everyone helps each other, so the work feels easy and fun.

Even though Sarah likes her job, it is not always simple. Sometimes, the bakery gets very busy, and she needs to work quickly. On those days, she feels tired, but she still does her best. Sarah says her job teaches her responsibility and teamwork. She is happy because she can make customers smile every day.

1. What is Sarah's workplace like?
2. Who does she help to decide what to buy?
3. How is the food at her shop?
4. Who does she like talking with at work?
5. What can Sarah learn from her job?

Passage 2: Reading the following passage about Anna's family and answer following questions with NO MORE THAN TWO WORDS or A NUMBER from the text

Anna's Family

Anna lives in a small house with her family. She has five people in her family: her father, her mother, her brother, her sister, and herself. They are a happy family, and everyone helps each other every day.

Anna's father works as a teacher. He teaches math at the local school. He always helps Anna and her siblings with their homework. Her mother stays at home and takes care of the house. She cooks delicious meals, cleans the rooms, and makes sure everyone has clean clothes.

Anna's older brother, James, is sixteen years old. He loves to play soccer and practices with his team after school. He also helps Anna carry her school bag when it is too heavy. Anna's younger sister, Lily, is only six years old. She likes to draw pictures and tell funny stories.

In the evenings, the family eats dinner together. After dinner, they play board games or watch TV. Sometimes, Anna's father tells them stories about his childhood, and everyone laughs.

On weekends, the family spends time outdoors. They go to the park, have picnics, or visit their grandparents. Anna loves these moments because they all have fun together. She feels lucky to have such a caring and loving family.

1. How many members are there in Sarah's family?
2. Who helps Sarah's brother and sister do homework at home?
3. What does James like to do after school?
4. When does she play board games with her family?
5. Who does she come to see with her family on weekends?

Passage 3: Read the passage about Mr. Brown's office and fill in each blank with ONE WORD ONLY from the text

Mr. Brown's Office

Mr. Brown works in an office every day. His office is on the third floor of a tall building in the city. Inside his office, there are many things that help him do his job.

On his desk, Mr. Brown has a computer and a phone. He uses the computer to write emails and create documents. The phone rings many times during the day, and he answers it to talk to clients. There is also a lamp on his desk that gives him extra light when he works late.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Next to his desk, Mr. Brown has a chair and a filing cabinet. The chair is comfortable, and he sits on it for long hours while he works. The filing cabinet holds all his important papers. Mr. Brown keeps everything organized, so he can find things quickly when he needs them.
There is a large printer in the corner of the office. Mr. Brown uses it to print contracts, reports, and letters. Sometimes, the printer runs out of paper, and he has to refill it. On the walls of the office, there are pictures of his family and a calendar. He looks at the calendar to check dates and plan his meetings.
Mr. Brown likes his office because it is quiet and clean. It helps him focus on his work. At the end of the day, he turns off his computer and leaves the office feeling satisfied with what he has accomplished.

Summary

The building where Mr. Brown's office is located is (1) _____ and it is in the city. Every day, he works with his (2) _____ to make documents, send and receive emails. He often talks with his (3) _____ on the phone during the day. He has a/an (4) _____ which is large to make copies of documents. There is a calendar and some pictures of his family on the wall. His office is quiet and clean. He always feels (5) _____ after work each day.

Passage 4: Read the passage about Emma's Abilities and Hobbies and fill in each blank with NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS from the text

Emma's Abilities and Hobbies

Emma is a twelve-year-old girl who has many abilities and hobbies. She enjoys spending her free time doing things she loves. Her favorite hobby is painting. Emma uses watercolors and brushes to create beautiful pictures of nature, animals, and people. She paints every weekend, and her family loves her artwork.
Emma also has a great ability to play the piano. She takes lessons twice a week and practices every evening after school. Her teacher says Emma is very talented because she learns new songs quickly. Emma plays for her family during special occasions, and they always clap and cheer for her.
Besides painting and playing the piano, Emma enjoys reading books. She likes adventure stories and mystery novels. Emma goes to the library every Saturday to borrow new books. She often tells her friends about the stories she reads, and they enjoy listening to her.
Emma is also good at sports. She plays volleyball with her school team. She practices three times a week and plays matches on weekends. Emma says volleyball teaches her teamwork and makes her stronger.
Although Emma has many hobbies, she always finds time to study and do her homework. She believes it is important to balance work and play. Emma feels happy because she learns new things and improves her skills every day.

1. Emma loves using _____to paint pictures.
2. She has piano lessons _____ and practices regularly in the evening.
3. Emma often borrows books from library _____.
4. On weekends, she plays volleyball matches with her _____.
5. She is _____ when she can learn new things from her hobbies.

LIVEWORKSHEETS