

S1 World Music

Question 1: Identify the concept from the description given.

No	Description	Answer
1.	A percussion instrument, capable of producing lots of different pitches. Made out of metal.
2.	A style of music from Jamaica. Features a strong emphasis on beats 2 and 4.
3.	A style of music featuring heavy percussion, and lots of call and response. Found in Brazil.
4.	Music from Africa, featuring heavy percussion, and lots of call and response. Singing is very important.
5.	Music from South America, usually featuring brass and percussion as main instruments. Very energetic and rhythmic.

Question 2: Match the concept with the description.

Unaccompanied Singing
The leader plays a phrase, then the rest of the group play it back
Instruments played by striking
Instruments played by blowing
Made up on the spot

Brass

Improvisation

Call and Response

A Cappella

Percussion