

Other Another Others

Name: _____

Result: ___/18    Date: ___/___/20__

---

1. The friends looked at one another in surprise.
2. Touch is the sense which very nearly takes the place of all the others, and which alone is indispensable.
3. We must get the _____ man into this.
4. The _____ of the party, however they might be puzzled by the serious problem that confronted them, would not allow themselves to despair.
5. They looked at one _____ in silence.
6. She looked at some of the _____.
7. From your accounts, he appears to be pursuing that line of conduct which, of all _____, is most favourable to us.
8. I don't know whether you've been depending on me-you and some of the _____.
9. They stood and looked at each _____.
10. One name is as good as _____.
11. I have _____ friends, you know.
12. There is, however, _____ side to this question.
13. It was perhaps just this uncertainty about his affection which made him seem more precious than any of the _____.
14. It is to think of _____ people.
15. I don't think I ever drove faster, but the _____ were there before us.
16. Then without _____ word she left him.
17. He stopped, and as soon as he did so, the _____ followed his example.

18. And thereupon the head clerk sat down at his table, and the _____ followed his example.

19. Not _____ word was spoken on the subject that day.

20. They can think of us in no _____ way.