

Mood Vocabulary

Item I: Fill the table with the Spanish meaning of the adjectives. If you don't know the adjectives in Spanish, use the recommended dictionary:

www.wordreference.com

Mood adjective	Spanish translation	Mood adjective	Spanish translation
Happy		Bored
Angry		Excited
Sad		Upset
Worried		Anxious

Item II. Look at the pictures and describe them using the adjectives from Item I. Try to use all the words from the table.

 Example: She is upset

Item III: Fill the gaps in the text with the adjectives from Item I.

The Paintbrush

Tuesday is my favorite day at school. I wake up easily because I have my favorite classes. I really like my art lessons, my teacher is so enthusiastic, he is always _____ about seeing our work! But today, I notice that I probably lost my favorite paintbrush in the last session. I'm so _____, because I can't finish my painting. I look for it, but I get tired after a while, I don't know what to do and I lose interest. I am _____. After 10 minutes, I start feeling nervous and I can't stop moving. My teacher looks at me and says: Don't be _____, you can finish it with mine.

She lends me her paintbrush and I continue working on my artwork but is late. The bell rings and I must leave. I don't want to leave. I am so frustrated, I am _____!

Later, when walking home I try to remember where my paintbrush can be. I feel _____. Did I really lose it?

I'm _____, I want to cry. I enter to my room and surprise!

I see my favorite paintbrush on my desk. I'm _____ again, I didn't lose it!