

Listen and fill in the blanks.

The Adventures of Hamilton the Hamster

Hamilton was no _____ hamster. While most hamsters _____ their days nibbling on _____ and spinning on _____. Hamilton had an adventurous spirit. Every _____, just as the moonlight touched his _____, he would peek out, curious about the _____ beyond.

Listen and choose the correct answer.

1. What made Hamilton different from other hamsters?

- a) He was larger than most hamsters.
- b) He had an adventurous spirit.
- c) He preferred to sleep during the day.
- d) He didn't like seeds.

2. What did Hamilton do every night?

- a) Nibbled on seeds.
- b) Spun on his wheel.
- c) Peeked out of his cage, curious about the world beyond.
- d) Slept soundly.

3. When did Hamilton become active?

- a) During the day.
- b) At dusk.
- c) At night, just as the moonlight touched his cage.
- d) In the early morning.

4. What was Hamilton's primary activity during the day?

- a) Exploring the house.
- b) Nibbling on seeds and spinning on wheels.
- c) Sleeping.
- d) Playing with other animals.

5. What did Hamilton's curiosity lead him to do?

- a) Stay inside his cage.
- b) Sleep more.
- c) Peek out of his cage, curious about the world beyond.
- d) Eat more seeds.