I'LL STAND IN THE LINE FOR YOU

Tim Taylor

I wonder if you can guess what I do? Probably not! I am a line stander! No, it isn't my full-time job. It's a job that I do mostly on weekends and holidays to earn some extra money. It sounds really boring, but it isn't really. Let me explain: I basically stand in lines for people that don't want to or don't have time to.

Imagine you had a ticket for an Ed Sheeran concert and you wanted to get to the front of the arena. You have work or college and you just can't stand in a line all day. That's when you call me! I stand in the line for you and when you arrive, we change places of course.

And it isn't only concerts. I even stand in lines for school and college applications! Sometimes I have to sleep in a tent the night before. That way, I get to be the first to hand in the application the next day!

It's not always easy. I do get very tired sometimes. Sometimes I stand in line for about 19 hours in a row. But is it worth it? Well, yes. I charge a lot of money. And I can spend the time doing things I love. For example, I usually read a book, and sometimes I take my guitar with me and play the guitar. But do you know what the best thing is about my job? You often meet really interesting people! I've made quite a few friends standing in lines.

Feel free to ask questions or leave me a reply!
