A busy life!

Jonathan Brown is always super busy. When he isn't doing his homework or playing in his local basketball team, this hard-working 16-year-old is at the Hadford Youth Centre. 'I help organise activities for the younger kids after school on Wednesdays', he says. He adds, 'Working with eight and nine-year-olds is very challenging, but it's never boring!'

It all started a year ago. He was cycling to school one day with a friend when he saw a new volunteer centre. 'It looked interesting, so I stopped and went in', he said. 'And the week after that I began work. Most of my friends think I'm mad. Some are lazy and don't want to work in their free time and others are only interested in money. People are sometimes very selfish.'

Jonathan says that before he started volunteering he was very different. 'I was disorganised and shy! But now I'm organised and I'm better at talking to people I don't know. Working teaches you a lot.' He has some tips for new volunteers. 'You must be polite and friendly. Don't worry about asking questions you think are silly. You mustn't be shy. And you don't have to wait for someone to tell you what to do. Just do it!'
