

A. Change the sentences below into Negative and Interrogative sentences!

1. Diana paid for dinner yesterday afternoon.

(-) lunch yesterday afternoon

(?) lunch yesterday afternoon

2. The gardener mowed the garden two weeks ago.

(-) the garden two weeks ago

(?) the garden two weeks ago

3. My parents rode their bikes around town last weekend.

(-) their bikes around town last weekend

(?) their bikes around town last weekend

4. The doorbell rang last night.

(-) last night

(?) last night?

5. The professor proved his theory in the experiment last semester.

(-) in the experiment last semester.

(?) in the experiment last semester.

6. They put the garbage away yesterday evening.

(-) away yesterday evening.

(?) away yesterday evening.

7. He quit his volunteer position a few months ago.

(-) position a few months ago

(?) position a few months ago

8. Mother read my letter last night.

(-) my letter last night

(?) my letter last night

9. They rid the house of old stuffs last week.

(-) the house of old stuffs last night

(?) the house of old stuffs last night

10. The temperature rose unexpectedly two days ago.

(-) unexpectedly two days ago

(?) unexpectedly two days ago?

B. Fill in the blanks with the appropriate verbs in the box. Don't forget to change the verb into the correct form!

1. The phone a moment ago.
2. Rani the bills two days ago.
3. The scientist the theory last year.
4. Dini hands with her boss this morning.
5. She her old car last month.
6. My sister an email to her friend a week ago.
7. Yani the table last night.
8. She her job last month.
9. I a novel yesterday.
10. He his bike to school yesterday.

pay prove quit
read ride ring sell send set shake