BRITANNIA HOLIDAYS

Extra trip to Arundel Castle: Wednesday

Dear

Holidaymaker,

I hope that you are enjoying your visit to the Albion Hotel. I'm writing to tell you about an extra trip we are arranging for Wednesday afternoon. We'll be going to Arundel Castle which is a tourist attraction about 40 miles from here. A coach will be leaving at 11 am and returning in time for your evening meal at 7 pm. The kitchen has been informed so if we're late for any reason, they'll wait for us. Please remember this is not part of your package so although the coach is free, there is an entrance fee of £7.00 if you want to visit the castle.

The town of Arundel is very pretty with pleasant walks down by the river and some interesting old shops. The castle stands on a hill outside the town and can be seen from miles around. There has been a castle on this site for almost 1,000 years, but the present building is not that old, so it's certainly not an old ruin. The castle buildings are used as a home by the present owners but quite a large part is open to the public.

Among the things to see at the castle are some lovely rooms. The library has a wonderful ceiling and there is a beautiful bedroom, once used by members of the royal family. There is furniture dating from the 16th century and a fine collection of old clocks which shouldn't be missed. The picture gallery is also very interesting and has paintings by famous artists such as Canaletto and Gainsborough.

We will arrive in Arundel at lunchtime and the castle has its own restaurant, which serves excellent home-made lunches. If a group of you would like to pre-book, we can arrange a discount for you. If not, you can decide when you arrive and there are always plenty of free tables. For those of you who prefer a lighter meal, traditional English afternoon tea is served in the restaurant from 1:00 pm at a very reasonable price.

So, if you would like to join us on our trip to Arundel, please ask at Reception by Tuesday lunchtime at the latest, and your name will be added to the list.

Have a nice day.

Questions 31-35 refer to the following announcement:

Visitors who want to see the city's attractions have several transportation options. The use of private cars is discouraged, since parking is limited and the streets of the historical district are narrow. Fortunately, excellent alternatives are available. The subway system provides fast, inexpensive transportation to all areas of the city, from 6.00 am to 12 midnight. Bus service operates 24 hours a day, for those who prefer to travel above ground and sneak in some extra sightseeing en route. Those of you who want to make sure that you see all the tourist attractions may be especially interested in our Visitor's Tour buses, which make stops at all points of interest throughout the city. For your convenience, special visitor's passes for all forms of public transportation are sold at hotels throughout the city, along with maps and schedules for transportation routes. Subway tickets may also be purchased at subway stops.

Questions 36-40 refer to the following article:

There is no such thing as a safe drug. Each medication is a double-edged sword, with a good side and a bad side. Successful medical treatment is a careful balance between the beneficial and harmful effects of medication, weighted, one hopes, in favor of the beneficial. Unfortunately, just the opposite is often the case. The original disease may be less of a problem than the reaction to treatment, and the old saying "the cure was worse than the disease" has frequently been all too true.

Too many drugs are prescribed in our pill-popping society. The evidence that we are overmedicated is very popular. Americans spend about $11 billion on prescribed medications each year, and that does not include the $2.6 billion we pay for nonprescription, over-the-counter pharmaceuticals. According to a study carried out in twenty-four Boston hospitals, more than 75 million Americans consume a drug at least once a week and usually every day. Is it any wonder that drugs are killing us faster than automobile accidents or certain major diseases?

36. The opposite in paragraph 1 refers to

- A. the beneficial effects B. the harmful effect
- C. the original disease D. the medical treatment

37. Buying drugs without prescription is ___ in the United States.

- A. popular B. rare C. hardly D. fashionable

38. The author cites expenditures of "$11 billion" and "$2.6 billion" as evidence to support the opinion that...

- A. Americans consume unhealthy amounts of prescription and over-the-counter drugs.

- B. Doctors often prescribe drugs in situations where negative side effects may result.
- C. Reactions to drugs are often more severe than the symptoms of the disease itself.
- D. It is impossible to achieve a balance between the beneficial and harmful effects of drugs.

39. The author cites a study that supports which of the following statements

- A. Each medication is a double-edged sword, with a good side and a bad side.
- B. The original disease may be less of a problem than reaction to treatment.
- C. More than 75 million Americans consume a drug at least once a week.
- D. Many drugs are prescribed in our pill-popping.

40. The tone of the passage indicates that the writer is

- | | |
|-----------------|---------------|
| A. worried | B. thoughtful |
| B.C. respectful | D. offended |
