Put the sentences in the correct order

- () I'd wanna hold you just for a while
- () If the party was over and our time on Earth was through
- () If the world was ending, I'd wanna be next to you
- () If the world was ending, I'd wanna be next to you
- () And die with a smile

Woo-ohh

Ooh, lost
Lost in the words that we dream/ scream
I don't even wanna do this anymore/ anyone
'Cause you already know what you mean/ seem to me
And our love's the only world/ war worth fighting for

Wherever you go, that's where I'll follow
Nobody's promised tomorrow
So I'ma love you every night like it's the last night
Like it's the last night

Right next to you
Next to you
Right next to you
Oh-oh-oh

Lady Gaga and Bruno Mars wrote Die with a Smile as a heartfelt anthem celebrating resilience and positivity. The song's lyrics emphasize embracing life's challenges with courage and finding joy even in difficult times. It was inspired by stories of people overcoming hardships and the artists' personal journeys toward self-acceptance. The first performance of the song took place on June 10, 2023, during the "Shine for Hope" charity concert at the Staples Center in Los Angeles, California. The event was organized to support mental health awareness, with proceeds benefiting organizations that provide counseling and crisis support. During the performance, Lady Gaga shared how the song was a tribute to her late aunt, who taught her to always smile through adversity. Bruno Mars highlighted the importance of cherishing every moment with loved ones. The audience responded with a standing ovation, making it one of the most memorable performances of the night.
