

Write the pronoun in each sentence below.

1. We watched a silent movie.
2. Michael had borrowed it from the library.
3. Mr. Oppenheim asked me to turn out the lights.
4. Could you see the screen easily?
5. Was Charlie Chaplin your first choice?
6. In this film a young woman helps him.
7. The Little Fellow becomes her friend.
8. They walk down the road together.
9. The Marx Brothers—Groucho, Harpo, Chico, and Zeppo—always make us laugh.
10. Their act is usually the same.
11. Chico and Harpo often get them into trouble.
12. Chico outsmarts his brother Groucho.
13. We love to hear Harpo play the harp.
14. Our favorite Marx Brothers film is A Night at the Opera.
15. Harold Lloyd films are my mother's favorites.

Write the noun in sentence (a) then write the pronoun in sentence (b) that replaces the noun in (a).

example: Charlie/him

16. a. Marla decided to make a movie.
b. She would be the producer and director.
17. a. Carlos and Rana heard about the movie.
b. Marla wanted them to be the stars.
18. a. Marla filmed Carlos's special stunts.
b. His best stunt was tightrope walking.
19. a. Rana's scene also had a special effect.
b. Her finest scene featured a disappearing act.
20. a. Marla showed the movie to her family.
b. Marla's brother and sister enjoyed it very much.