

Headlines

Full sentences (a-j)

Ban on egg exports extended for a month

Atlantic plastic levels far higher than thought.

100 people denied entry to Thailand

North Korea fires two missiles into sea

Fashion brands ready to bounce back

Russia to test COVID-19 vaccine on 40,000 people

Man causes motorway accidents

Tesco still growing

Heavy smog in the North Cars crushed by fallen trees at holiday resort

a. Heavy smog is in the North.

b. Tesco is still growing.

c. The Atlantic plastic levels are far higher than thought.

d. Fashion brands are ready to bounce back.

e. North Korea fired two missiles into sea.

f. Cars were crushed by fallen trees at a holiday resort.

g. A man caused motorway accidents.

h. 100 people were denied entry to Thailand.

i. Russia will test COVID-19 vaccine on 40,000 people.

j. The ban on egg exports will be extended for a month.

Name: _____

Last name: _____

Class: _____

