1. Match two parts:

Germany	check children
Denmark	drive in shirt
Spain	no animals on the roof
Alaska	filled tank
Manila	comfortable footwear
Thailand	check the number plate

2. Say if the sentence is TRUE or FALSE:

1. If you are driving your car in Germany you mustn't run out of fuel or there might be consequences.
2. Running out of fuel is considered an emergency.
3. In Denmark you must check for children under or behind the car before starting it.
4. You can face legal consequences if you are caught starting your car and driving away without checking for children.
5. In Spain you must wear comfortable shoes when you drive so wear sandals flip-flops or be Barefoot.
6. Alaskan authorities don't trust their drivers so if you are in Alaska it's important to remember that you mustn't drive with your animal companion surfing on the roof of your car.
7. In Manila in the Philippines you must check the last number on your number plate before taking your car.
8. In Thailand there is a law that says you can't drive without a shirt even on hot days or if your air conditioner is not working.

3. Choose the correct option:

1. When is running out of fuel on a German motorway allowed?
   a.Never.
   b.Only when it's an emergency.
   c.Only when you can prevent traffic congestion or an accident.

2. What must you do before taking your car in Denmark?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

a.Check that the children are sitting safely.
b.Check that your children are using their seats.
c.Check that there are no kids near your car.

3. What is true in Spain?

a.You can't wear sandals unless coming from the beach.
b.You must always wear safe footwear.
c.You can wear comfortable shoes or no shoes at all.

4. What does the video imply about the law in Alaska?

a.You cannot carry a pet unless it's tied.
b.You can't let your dog climb onto the roof of your car.
c.You mustn't carry your pet on the roof of your car.

5. When can you drive in Manila?

a.It depends on the number on your number plate.
b.If you can drive on Monday, you cannot drive on Tuesday.
c.It depends on the colour of your number plate.

6. In Thailand, you mustn't drive without a shirt…

a.because it's not decent.
b.unless it's very hot.
c.unless your air conditioning is not working.

LIVEWORKSHEETS