

Skills and Personal Qualities

1. Drag the words to complete the sentences. Make sure to think about the context before selecting the answer.

Exercise:

1. A great innovator must be both _____ (creative) and _____ (visionary).
2. To succeed in high-pressure situations, it is essential to be _____ (resilient) and _____ (adaptable).
3. A good leader demonstrates _____ (integrity) and builds trust with _____ (effective communication).
4. Working in a global environment requires _____ (cultural awareness) and strong _____ (problem-solving skills).

Word list:

Creative, visionary, resilient, adaptable, integrity, effective communication, cultural awareness, problem-solving skills.

2. Imagine you are a journalist writing about an outstanding professional in a field of your choice. Describe:

1. The name of the professional and their profession.
2. Three personal skills or qualities that make them stand out.
3. A specific example of how those skills have helped them overcome a challenge.

Example Response:

"Dr. Elena Carter, a renowned neurologist, is known for her resilience, adaptability, and exceptional problem-solving skills. During a medical crisis in a remote region, she adapted to limited resources by devising innovative treatment methods. Her resilience helped her inspire the local medical staff, and her problem-solving abilities saved countless lives. Today, she continues to lead global health initiatives with unmatched dedication."

