2 1.33 Listen and repeat. Which jobs would you like to try?

Vocabulary Jobs

architect cleaner computer programmer dentist engineer factory worker firefighter hairdresser journalist secretary tour guide

3 1.34 Read the cartoon on page 24 and complete it with the names of the jobs. Then listen and check.

4 Write the names of the jobs. Who:

1 looks after your teeth? dentist
2 cleans offices and schools?
3 designs or builds machines?
4 writes programmes for computers?
5 designs new buildings?
6 makes phone calls and organises meetings?

5 1.35 Listen and repeat. Find the opposites of adjectives 1–4 in the Vocabulary box.

Vocabulary Describing jobs

badly paid boring challenging dangerous easy exciting safe well-paid

1 exciting ≠ boring 3 badly paid ≠ _____
2 easy ≠ _____ 4 safe ≠ _____

6 1.36 Read about Jack's other jobs. Complete the sentences with the correct adjectives. Then listen and check.

7 Which of Jack's jobs do you think is the most and the least interesting? Why?

8 1.37 Listen to three people. What jobs do they do? How do they describe them?

	Speaker 1	Speaker 2	Speaker 3
Job
Description

9 Exam Spot Which jobs do people in your family do? What are their jobs like?

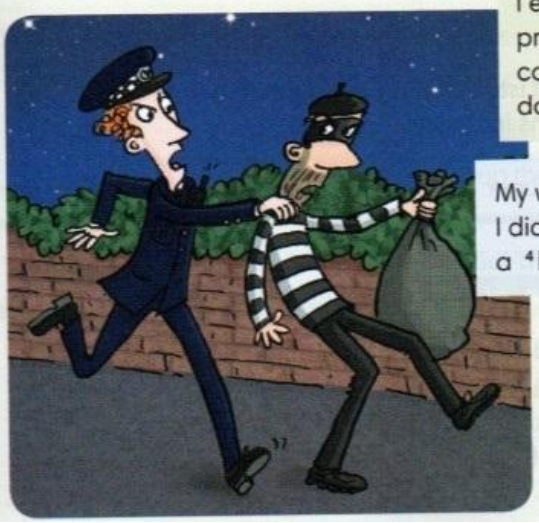

My aunt is a teacher. It's a challenging job, but she loves it.

I remember that!

10 Complete the sentences. Choose jobs from this page or use your own ideas. Compare your answers in pairs.

1 The most exciting job is _____.
2 The most boring job is _____.
3 The easiest job is _____.
4 The most challenging job is _____.
5 The strangest job is _____.
6 The most dangerous job is _____.
7 The best job for me is _____!

My other jobs

I enjoyed working as a computer programmer. I played a lot of computer games. This job wasn't dangerous, it was [3]s_____.

My week as a cleaner was not bad, but I didn't earn much money. It was a [4]b_____ job.

Was my job as an engineer [5]e_____? No, it wasn't! Building roads and bridges is difficult! It's really [6]c_____! What job's next? Who knows …

The police officer's job was [1]e*xciting*. It was never boring. We caught a famous criminal, so it was [2]d_____ too!

LIVEWORKSHEETS