My First Thanksgiving in the USA

I am from Brazil and I live in New York. In 2018, I was very excited because it was my first Thanksgiving in the USA.

On Thanksgiving Day, I woke up at 7:00 a.m. My husband and I went to his mother's house in Brooklyn. The house was full of people. There were many children, too. They were playing in the living room.

At 12:00 p.m., we ate lunch. We had turkey, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, pumpkin pie, and apple pie. It was delicious! After lunch, we watched football on TV. My husband's family loves sports!

In the evening, we played board games. We played Monopoly and Scrabble. My mother-in-law won Monopoly, but I won Scrabble! At around 10:00 p.m., we went home. I was very tired, but I was happy.

I think Thanksgiving is a wonderful holiday. It's not like Christmas or New Year's Eve. Nobody gives presents. But we say thank you. We say thank you to our friends and family, and we say thank you to God for all the good things in our lives. I love that. It's important to remember that there are a lot of things to be thankful about.

Thanksgiving is also about food. I love food! I cook a lot, so I like to try new recipes for Thanksgiving. Last year, I made a Brazilian dessert called brigadeiro. Everybody liked it. This year, I'm going to make a Brazilian drink called caipirinha. I think they'll like that, too.

Another thing I like about Thanksgiving is that it's a time to be with family. My family is in Brazil, so I really miss them. But I'm lucky because I have my husband's family. They're very nice to me, and they make me feel welcome. I'm thankful for that.

This year, I'm going to my mother-in-law's house again. I can't wait!
