

Objective: Write a descriptive text about your own house, applying the vocabulary, grammar, and structures you learned during the previous sessions.

Instructions:

1. Write at least 150 words describing your house.
2. Include:
  - o House-related vocabulary (e.g., rooms, furniture, appliances).
  - o "There is/There are" and "There isn't/There aren't" to describe what your house has.
  - o Prepositions of place (e.g., next to, in front of, under, on, behind).
  - o At least two sentences using "have/has" to describe items in your house.
  - o A variety of sentence structures to make your description clear and detailed.
3. Organize your text into 3 paragraphs:
  - o Introduction: Who lives in your house and how many floors/rooms it has.
  - o Description of key rooms and spaces: Describe the main areas of your house (living room, kitchen, bedrooms, etc.).
  - o Personal opinion or favorite place: Share your favorite part of your house and explain why.
4. Use complete sentences and check your spelling and grammar before submitting your text.

Title: My Cozy House

Introduction

I live in a cozy apartment with my parents and my younger brother. My house has two bedrooms, a living room, a kitchen, and a small balcony. There is only one floor in my house, and it is not very big, but it is comfortable for my family.

Description of key rooms and spaces

When you enter my house, you can see the living room. There is a sofa, a coffee table, and a TV in the living room. Next to the living room, there is a small dining area with a table and four chairs. The kitchen is next to the dining room. In the kitchen, there is a fridge, a sink, and three cabinets. There aren't any ovens in my kitchen, but we have a microwave. Behind the kitchen, there is a small balcony where my mom keeps her plants.

Personal opinion or favorite place

My favorite place in my house is my bedroom. I share it with my brother, but I love it because it is very colorful and cozy. There are two beds, a closet, and a small desk where I do my homework. My brother and I have a bookshelf full of books and toys. I like spending time in my room because it's peaceful and it feels like my own little world.
