

READING STRATEGIES 3

ADJECTIVE CLAUSES

When you have a very long sentence which is difficult to comprehend, it helps to identify adjective clauses. Read the sentences and click on the adjective clauses.

1. I wouldn't have been interested in the more standard film critic's role, which involves considering every film that comes out.
2. It can only rarely happen that someone who hates westerns buys a ticket for one after reading a review, or a love story addict avoids a romantic film because of what the papers say.
3. To counteract this, he has tried to create an environment where people are not afraid.
4. I made a film which featured a railway in Yorkshire.
5. There's a local train from Cannes along the coast which crosses the border with Italy.
6. There are a dozen or so main rides, which the older children went on several times.
7. In my youth I seemed to attract people who had to work or study away at some time and I was only able to stay in touch by correspondence.

